

LPFM stations should NOT be given priority over current FM translator service. KLOVE (105.5 FM) is a family friendly station. We are tired of editing other stations for appropriate programming for our kids. The community needs radio that provides positive influences on our kids and supports families. KLOVE supports wholesome values and has a positive and encouraging impact on communities all across America. Please preserve this service our community has come to value.